

Notice of Assessment: Lew Wilson

On March 24, 2017, the Bartholomew County Assessor's Office sent out a "notice of assessment" for 2017 pay 2018 assessments. The following information was included on the notice:

This "notice of assessment" is not a tax bill, but it does state the values for which properties have been assessed for the May and November 2018 tax bills. Please do not call the Assessor's Office to inquire about the amount of your tax bill. We do not have the tax rate for the 2018 tax bills yet and cannot tell you the taxes due in 2018. If you believe your assessment is not accurate, you have 45 days from the date on your notice to file an appeal with the Assessor's Office. This will be the only chance to appeal this assessment. Please note: You will not be able to appeal your tax bill next year. The Final Day to appeal the value on your notice will be May 8, 2017.

Thanks, Lew
